

BASEBALL EXTRA.

The EVENING EDITION COLORADO.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA THE PEOPLE

Increasing Their Lead in the League Race by Two Victories.

ONE OF THEM IN TEN INNINGS.

Danny Richardson's Home Run Saves a Game Almost Lost.

FIRST GAME.

Washington - - - 4

New York - - - 7

SECOND GAME.

New York - - - 10

Washington - - - 4

LEAGUE LEADERS TO-NIGHT.

Win. Lost. Per cent.

New York 73 40 .616

Boston 73 41 .611

grounded to pass him. Connor's pop fly was safely caught by A. Irwin, and the same fielder made a fine catch of a ball hit by Wiese.

Seventh Inning.—For his first single to centre, Ward got out to center. Then Hoy by a wild throw was permitted to gain second.

Poerner's sacrifice bunt was allowed, but Wiese did the business with a line hit to centre on which Hoy scored. Arthur Irwin went out. Wiese then scored.

Eighth Inning.—Wiese got out at first.

Beecher by a splendid sit up, got two bases on what should have been but a one-base hit. Wise got out to first. A. Irwin, for the fourth time, reached first on balls. Mack died to O'Rourke.

Ninth Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Washington 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

New York 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Washington, N. Y., New York, 10.

Earned Runs—Washington, 2; New York, 4.

The Second Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the second game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Wise got first on a right field and Richardson grabbed it. Hoy hit a fly to short-centre and after a hard chase Gore muffed the ball. Hoy got second on a wild pitch and Ward. Wiese got out at first, through a superb set of Cougars. Tiernan then forced out to Ward.

Third Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4.

The Third Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the third game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Wise got first on a right field and Richardson grabbed it. Hoy hit a fly to short-centre and after a hard chase Gore muffed the ball. Hoy got second on a wild pitch and Ward. Wiese got out at first, through a superb set of Cougars. Tiernan then forced out to Ward.

Third Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4.

The Fourth Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the fourth game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4.

The Fifth Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the fifth game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4.

The Sixth Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the sixth game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4.

The Seventh Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the seventh game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4.

The Eighth Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the eighth game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4.

The Ninth Game.

After a short intermission, which the players spent in making the acquaintance of sundry sandwiches and the crowd in yelling for the game to begin, the ninth game was begun, with a crowd of onlookers numbering fully three thousand.

Krook and Riddle were scored as the Senators' battery; Crane and Murphy were booked for the rights.

First Inning.—Gore got first base on balls. He was advanced to second by a man's sacrifice bunt. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then connected a double to left and Ward scored.

Connor knocked a long fly to center, and then Richardson took advantage of the ent to right. Wiese got out to first. Tiernan then got the ball on the ground, and when O'Rourke batted an uncontrollable single to left, Murray's grounder to A. Irwin forced O'Rourke at second. Three runs.

Second Inning.—Daly struck out. Keefe fielded to Gore, and John Irwin fanned out. No run.

Whitney slugged a pretty single to left field, but he was put out by a wild throw. He did not reach first. Tiernan got three bases over Hoy's head. Both Whitmer and Ewing scored on the hit. Tiernan came home on a wild throw of the ball. Three runs.

Score as of 9 P.M.

Boston 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 4

Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 3 1 0 0 3

Pass. Ht. Boston, N. Y., Philadelphia, 10.

Earned Runs—Boston, 2; Philadelphia, 4